

TURNER SOCIETY. Business Meeting Held Sunday Afternoon at the Turner Hall.

A business meeting of the Turner society was held Sunday afternoon at the hall in the south part of the city. The members had several matters to discuss. As to securing a turning instructor some of the members think that it is unlikely that they will have an instructor in connection with the city schools. A proposition was made to go of rate with the schools, but it is probable if physical culture is taken up in the schools a person will be secured to give his time exclusively to the schools and in that case the Turners will likely have an instructor of their own.

One feature of the Turner society is in favor of breaking off from the North American Turners and becoming an individual society. As it is now the local society is a part of a national union and the members are bound by the laws of the general organization. While some are in favor of making a separate organization for a class of the members who want to stay with the regular Turner society.

Another matter which was discussed at the meeting Sunday was the question of giving an entertainment during the holidays. The idea is to give a big dinner where all kinds of articles will be sold. The Turners have given similar affairs and they have always been quite successful.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1898.

Governor Tanner has concluded to restore order in Panama. It's not a bad idea either.

Nearly every new postoffice wants to be called Dewey, to say nothing of the babies.

In spite of the anti-annexation league the Republicans carried Massachusetts by 52,000.

Agundado will probably hear from Dewey's rapid pace commissioners in a little while. They only ad-journal for dinner.

Senator Allen of Nebraska, a Pop and admirably honest, has accepted a position as solicitor for a railroad company and thus the lion and the fraudulent lamb lie down together.

The returns from the soldiers, whose states gave them the right to vote in the field, show that the yellow journals have not convinced them that they should vote the Democratic ticket.

After all the stories have been told and conclusions drawn the whole lot has been upset by the disclosure of the fact that Shafter was Mr. S. S. Allen and not Alger, for the Santiago campaign.

Admiral Sampson has had his inning, but no losses. The Cuban women at Havana loaded him with flowers and then cheered him for 20 minutes. Twenty thousand people were present to do him honor.

The United States is constructing eight first class battle-ships. This means that the United States proposes to have peace at it has to fight for it, but no mugwumps could understand this sort of logic.

A South Carolina paper now proposes Dewey and Wheeler as the nominees for president and vice president on the Democratic ticket in 1900. This is another confession that the Democrats have no available men and want to cheat a Republican.

Grover Cleveland is visiting the shores of Porto Rico and Cuba. It is possible he expects another term as president and don't want it said as it was after that election that he had never seen much of United States territory.

ANTI-AMERICANISM.

A lot of featherheads and mug-wumps in Boston have organized an anti-annexationist association and have sent out an address setting forth their views and soliciting membership.
They oppose the annexation of the Philippine islands on the grounds that it would be "iniquitous to convert a war for humanity into a war of conquest"; that "it would amount to physical degradation," through the corruption of blood and "all the evils of militarism"; that it would result in political evils and would destroy "the necessity of preserving the union upon the principles of the framers," and lastly that it would entail the "clear necessity of a huge increase in taxes for the support of armies and navies with great probability that the voluntary enlistment will have to be supplemented by drafts."

A careful perusal of the reasons assigned for their opposition to annexation leads to but one conclusion, namely, that there is not as much patriotism in the makeup of the entire organization as there is in a pumpkin at a county fair.

War was declared against Spain on the grounds of humanity, of course, but the cold-blooded aristocrats who never see anything good in what the government which protects them does, have failed to observe that the war itself was not and could not be humane.
War is terrible, no matter whether it is waged for humane reasons, or for conquest. To drive Spain out of Cuba it was necessary to defeat the armies and squadrons of Spain, wherever and whenever it could be done with the most disaster to Spain, therefore the first battle was fought by Dewey in the harbor of Manila. That defeat made the victory at Santiago possible.
Had Manila not been fought or had Dewey been defeated at Montego Bay the United States would have been scattered to protect that coast and in that case, instead of Cervantes being destroyed at Santiago, he would have been destroyed at Manila.

These anti-Americans have also considered the idea that the people are as patriotic as they are and that if the Philippines are held our young men will not volunteer to fill our armies and navy, and that we will have to resort to the draft. Of course much has been done by the yellow journals and politicians and anti-Americans to discourage enlistment, but this country has never yet seen a time, even under worst copperheadism, when our young men were not ready to respond to a call for volunteers. If the recruiting offices were open tomorrow for 30,000 men to go to the Philippines all the cold-blooded anti-American mugwumps in the country could not prevent the filling of the requisition with patriotic Americans, who stand for their country, because they believe in it.

Did You Ever Have Lame Back?

If So, There is Some Good Cause For It Which Should Be Removed.

Morrow's Kid-neo-ids are the removers of this ailment. Don't take our word for it but read of those cured here in Decatur. Nearly every person who gets cured by the use of Morrow's Kid-neo-ids tells us that they have used several other remedies. In addition to this they tell us they have had from one to five doctors. Then they are surprised when they begin to be relieved so quickly, and eventually get cured. We are giving surprise parties every day.
Surprises are always agreeable when they are happy ones. These are the only kind Morrow's Kid-neo-ids give.
Alfred E. B. Dancan, 625 Decatur St., this city, has had one of these surprises.
She told a reporter of ours the other day that she had been troubled with her kidneys for three months, and says:
"I had pain in my back and my head ached and I felt tired. I heard Mor-row's Kid-neo-ids recommended for backache and obtained a package from A. J. Morrow, Inc. The first I took gave me relief and I am now going to take more and am positive that they will effect a cure. My kidney trouble began after my last child was born. I could hardly get around the house, but since using Morrow's Kid-neo-ids I am feeling much better generally, and my back is well."

If you have any form of kidney trouble or nervous ailment arising from this disease, check it at once with Kid-neo-ids.
Don't wait until it is too late and then blame your self for not listening to reason and facts. Morrow's Kid-neo-ids are yellow tablets (not pills) and cure all kidney ailments, nervousness, etc. They are sold by A. J. Morrow, Inc., drug stores, at 50 cents a box. John Morrow

RAILWAY TO THE SUN.

It is Estimated That All the Gold in the Sea Would More Than Build One.

It is little realized that the sea is a treasure house of gold, so incredibly rich as to far exceed the wildest dreams even of a mad millionaire.

Although in every 13 tons it only holds one grain of pure gold, its bulk is so vast that its 400,000,000 cubic miles of water, hold in solution gold of the value of $1,025,000,000,000,000.

If this gold could be rescued and distributed equally among all the inhabitants of the earth, each man, woman and child living would have a fortune of $10,333,333, or, roughly, 5 1/2 tons of sovereigns, and would enjoy the comfortable living income of $225 a week, or more than the annual income of five cabinet ministers of the first class.

Let us coin in fancy the sea's gold, and pile our myriads of sovereigns into one stupendous column. Our tower of gold, standing on a base a quarter of a mile each way, would soar into the clouds to a height of 14,823 feet, or 904 feet lower than the summit of Mont Blanc. To demolish and cart away our tower of sovereigns we should require the services of 3 2/3 horses for every man, woman and child in the world.

If we make a carpet of our marine sovereigns, we should have more than sufficient to cover an area 1,000 miles long and 153 miles wide; in fact, to "plate" with sovereigns, the whole of Great Britain and Ireland, Holland, Belgium and Portugal, with a remnant of over 600 square miles of gold to spare.

With our golden treasure, we could make a girdle of sovereigns around the equator nearly eight miles in width, or as wide as from the Thames to Edinburgh, or southward, to the outskirts of Croydon.

Similarly we could construct a roadway to the moon, 304 yards wide, along which 150 carriages might be driven abreast in comfort.

We could make a railway track of gold to bridge the 91,725,000 miles which divide us from the sun. Our gold train would be 1 1/2 feet wide, and if in 1773, when George I. had started on his long journey from earth to sun, and had reached night and day over its yellow track at the rate of 60 miles an hour, it would only reach its destination as these lines are being printed.

As a line of gold of astronomical fancy lets us construct two miles of sovereigns, each 2 1/2 inches wide, and on this track let us take a journey to Neptune, 2,755, 000,000 miles away.

We should have quite sufficient sovereigns for this purpose; but, journeying night and day at 60 miles an hour, it would take us 5,512 years to reach Neptune, by which time it would be too late to think of the return journey.

To have completed our journey today we ought to have started nearly 1,000 years before the deluge, according to recognized chronology. We should in this way have escaped the flood, at any rate.

With our treasure of the sea we could buy the United Kingdom, with its land, houses, and all its accumulated wealth of every kind, $2,000 times over; and we could furnish our national revenue for the next 9,000,000 years, allowing for reasonable growth; in fact, a single minute's income from our treasure, if carefully invested, would be sufficient to meet our entire national expenditure for a year.

All the gold current to-day throughout the world, if collected together, would only represent 1-5,062 of a penny of each of our myriad sea sovereigns, and if the same amount of gold could be produced by our mints every year it would take them 1,358,560 years to mint a pile as large as ours.—Tit-Bits.

A Parrot as a Ship's Mate.

There was a green and yellow Mexican parrot on board a ship. She talked much, and at times also sang. She said "Poor Polly!" and "Pretty Polly!" in a great many different tones. She called many persons by name, saying: "Mary, Harry, Oh, Harry, come to supper!" "What's the matter, Polly? What's the trouble?" (She always pulled her r's like a Frenchman.) She sang "Go Tell Aunt Rhody" and "I'm Called Little Buttermilk" from "Pinafore"—getting much off the key in the last part. Polly got out of her cage one day. She could open any fastening of the door. After walking about the deck awhile, she thought she would give her wings a little exercise. So away she flew to what she thought was a nice green field, but when she tried to alight on it poor Polly found that the field was nothing but water. She could not swim, so she fluttered and splashed, squawking all the time, and was just about to drown when an oar, pushed under her by a man in a boat, saved her life. A wet parrot is a most miserable object; but Polly comforted herself while drying her feathers with remarks about "Poor Polly!" "What's the matter, poor Polly?" "Polly, want your head scratched?" and finally astonished us all by serenading and half crying: "Oh —oh—my stomach's as hard as a b-a-r-r-i-c-a-d-e!" doubtless referring to the effect produced by the salt water.— Mrs. Charles D. Sigbee, in St. Nicholas.

All Three Together.

"I've seen plenty of soldiers walking single," said a man who looks about him as he goes. "and plenty of sailors, and I've seen a soldier and a sailor walking together, and a soldier and a civilian, and a sailor and a civilian.
To-day I saw walking along the street a civilian with a soldier on one side of him and a sailor on the other, and this was the first time I have seen all three walking together—the army, the navy and the civil side, too."—N. Y.

A Suggestion.

By the way, there is a great demand this fall for stylish, strictly up-to-date Covert Coats. We have a big line now, but have tried to add to it and found the market is empty. When these are gone, and they soon will be, there will be no more of the most fashionable kind to be had. Better come now.

SONG RECITAL AND RECEPTION Gentlemen Delightfully Entertained at Woman's Club Last Evening.

The Woman's club rooms on Monday evening, with the brilliant lights, handsomely dressed women, fragrant flowers and pleasant warmth, were a decidedly pleasing contrast to the sleet and rain which filled the air outside.

The song recital and informal reception which was given in honor of the gentlemen being one of the most enjoyable events which has taken place in club circles.

Mr. Aldrich talked on "The Evolution of Song Writing," illustrating his remarks with song. He first explained that the street songs of the different nations reflected the characteristics of each, and in this manner he portrayed the passionate hot headed nature of the Italian, the intellectual sturdy character of the Hungarian, the fanciful flighty characteristics of the French. Mr. Aldrich said: "When a person beholds Irish or Swedish character in the songs as the Irishman or the Swede sings in his everyday life it appeals to the heart. When an abstract quality is portrayed in classical music only, it is only the educated ear that can appreciate it."

In the interpretations last evening the simple melodies were given with their native pathos and beauty, which cannot but appeal to the student as well as to the uneducated mind. The program was given as follows:

1. Parisian Street Cries.
2. English Street Songs.
3. Folk Songs.

(a) Irish, "Mary, Thy Laugh was Light."
(b) Swedish, "Higher on the Vault of Heaven."
(c) Scotch, "And Ye Shall Walk in Silk Attire."
(d) Italian, "Fanciu! Fanciu!" 4. Old English Songs.
(a) "It Was a Lover."
(b) "Drink To Me, Only."
5. Hungarian Songs.
(a) "Where Tread the Torrents."
(b) "Had a Horse."
(c) "Father Was a Thrifty Man."
6. Russian, "To An Aeolian Harp." 7. Czech, "The Hat."

Following the recital an informal reception was held and the guests descended to the dining room, where refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. S. T. Nesbitt and Mrs. S. P. Matthews assisted by Mrs.
Clarence Wait, Mrs. E. A. Morgan, Mrs. Joe Bridges and Misses Villa Mills, Eva Bixby, Alice Robinson, Emma Pahmeyer, Lillian Irwin and Miss Johnson.

The dining table was in white and green the combination being formal by ropes of smilax and a huge vase of white chrysanthemums. The candles were also in green and white.

Mr. Aldrich is making a tour of the western states and went from here to Galesburg, where he will give a song recital this evening.

PERSONAL

—The small child of Mr. and Mrs.
Jacob Kountz of North Monroe street is dangerously ill of inflammation of the bowels.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Post will entertain at cards on Friday evening.

—Dr. W. C. Bowers made a professional call at Mowqua today.

—Will King of Ashmore, Coles county, arrived in the city yesterday to visit his mother, Mrs. Marietta King, who is seriously ill at the home of John E. King.

—Clas E. Strosser and wife of Davenport, Iowa, who have been visiting with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leforge, returned home yesterday. Mr. Strosser will remain for a short time longer, when Mr.
Strosser will return for a few days and both will leave for their new home in Davenport.

The dining room at the Corn Camival building where the Catholic ladies are holding the dinner and fair is particularly attractive and artistic. The pillars are wound with hawthorn and the beams decorated with flags. The tables are decorated with chrysanthemums of all colors in great variety.
The hawthorn and flags were donated by the Stewart Dry Goods company and Bradley Bros. Bonnersbach donated the flowers.

The Hoskins family will occupy the P. W. Haines tenement property on North College street.

A World's Tribute.

America Leads the Nations in the March of Progress.

Among the wonders of the World's Columbian Fair the grandest was the exhibit of American products. The Exhibition was, in this respect, an object lesson of the grandeur and glory of the Republic. Among the exhibits from the United States no article of its class stood so high as

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

The Chief Chemist of the Agricultural department at Washington, backed by an intelligent jury at the Exposition, found it strongest in leavening power, peerless in its purity and beyond comparison in uniform excellence.

Received Highest Award
At the World's Fair.

The award is a matter of official record.
Nothing could settle so decisively the immeasurable superiority of Dr. Price's over all other powders as the great honor bestowed at Chicago.

The seats for the Elks minstrels are going rapidly. There have been 635 75-cent and 370 50-cent seats given out to the members for sale and nearly all of them are taken.

Macabee ball at Columbia hall, over the postoffice Wednesday evening.
The Macabee hall will be open all evening for the accommodation of members and friends who may not wish to dance. No improper persons will be admitted.—22-24

Singular Birth and Death Rate.
The New Zealand birth rate continues to attract the attention of statisticians.
It has steadily declined until it is now slightly under 25 per 1,000. In the last 15 years it has fallen more than 12 points.
Population increases, but the number of births remains virtually stationary, and so the rate per 1,000 sinks. The births numbered between 18,000 and 19,000 in 1882, and they numbered between 18,000 and 19,000 in 1890. If the rate goes on falling it will in a few years be on a level with that of Ireland, if not of France. Two things save the colony from an arrest of the growth of population. First the death rate—0.3 per 1,000—is the lowest recorded of any country in the world; second, there is a small but appreciable immigration.
Those who hold that a high standard of education and comfort involves a decline in both the birth and death rates have here a confirmation of their theory. The average of children in regular school attendance in New Zealand is higher even than in Scotland.— London News.

Pepper Sauce.
Cut up very fine three large heads of cabbage and six seeded pods of green pepper. Add a tablespoonful of celery seed, a teaspoonful of allspice and the same of mace, white mustard seed and salt. Mix, cover with good old vinegar and put away in well-stopped glass bottles for use.—Detroit Free Press.
